Tent State Events

www.tentstate.org

Every Night During the DNC

The City of Denver banned camping in an attempt to suppress our demonstrations. We outwitted them though. The "Freedom Cage," the laughable 50,000 sq feet surrounded by razor wire and caging is useless for having your voice heard, but its open 24 hrs a day and it'll work to "feign" sleep.

Saturday, Aug 23rd

5 pm - Pirates and Delegates Booty Feast

Meet at Gates Crescent Park. The Denver papers, the Rocky and the Post, are throwing a multi-million dollar party for the delegates and the media right across the creek. That's a lot of money! But, we're throwing a party for them too! Their booty may be millions of dollars, but our booty is beer. And barbeque. Join us as we share our bounty with the delegates and let them know, even pirates want an immediate end to the war. (Why pirates you say? Well, we have to boat the delegates across the creek to arrrrgh barbeque!)

Sunday, Aug 24th

FUNK THE WAR

1 pm - Funky Snake Marches

2 pm - Union Station

We're done with dying. Kick off the weeks activities by bringing the war to delegates--and getting funky while doing it. Come express your hope and anger with the Democratic Party's continuation of the war; come show your solidarity by dancing in the streets, making music rather than war, and connecting with others united to resist war and imperialism. We can no longer express our dissent through endless marches merely asking for peace, nor can we simply lash out randomly at all manifestations of the system that drives the war machine. During this Convention we'll be very specific. When we show up on the 16th St Mall, there'll be no doubts as to why we are there. We recognize that people's ways of resisting are diverse, and we encourage a multiplicity of creative expressions of resistance (particularly those of a funky variety). Click the link for snake march locations.

Monday, Aug 25th

Morning - Bringing the War Home

Join Iraq Veterans Against the War, Tent State, and the Alliance for Real Democracy as we turn downtown into one massive reminder to the delegates and the public of what war looks like, sounds like and feels like. Meet at Tent State early in the morning for trainings on how to get this done.

Evening in the Freedom Cage -

Nomination of Party - Less Youth Ticket

Neither candidate or party represents our generation. They may pander to us during the primaries, but now that they got what they need tossed to the side. We need our own candidates, not beholden to any party or corporate agenda. We need our generation represented. Tonight in the most appropriate place for our generation, we will nominate two voices to speak for us; to the media, the people, and ourselves. The candidates who win the nomination will be given intense media training over the next few days and have access to some of the most well known policy makers on the left to articulate a domestic and foreign policy that represents us! Click the link to nominate yourself or someone you know.

Tuesday, Aug 26th

All Day - Another Brick in the Wall

The Alliance for Real Democracy, Tent State, and various other groups are placing checkpoints around the city to mimic the experiences we force on people in Iraq, Palestine, and on the US/Mexico Border. Meet at Tent State early in the day for trainings and to get plugged in to this powerful action.

Wednesday, Aug 27th

9 am - Activities at the Coliseum

Tent State will be moving to the Denver Coliseum for Wednesday's morning actions. Show early before the concert to get plugged in the actions later in the day, take a course or training at the Resurrection City Free University, or check out the Amnesty International replica of a cell at Guantanamo Bay.

11 am - We've Got the Iraq Vets Back! Concert

A very special guest unites with The Coup, Flobots, Wayne Kramer and State Radio to build momentum and awareness for the Iraq Veterans Against the War and their actions. The show is free. You can get tickets by coming down to the Funk the War on Sunday or Tent State Sunday-Tuesday.

3 pm - IVAW Press Conference

Join us as we support our veterans brave enough to speak out against this bullshit war!

Thursday, Aug 28th

9 am - National Mobilization for Just and Humane Immigration Reform

Tent State is backing the call put out by We Are America for immigrants and other justice-minded Americans to come together to denounce anti immigrant rhetoric and enforcement only policies and turn the tide towards "just and humane solutions." Meet at Rudy Park (2855 W. Howard Pl) before 9 am.

The We Are America-DNC is united around four principles:

Just and fair immigration reform that will stop the criminalization of immigrant people;

Immigrant student rights, embodied in the DREAM Act and in-state tuition;

Tearing down the border walls to ensure that there are no more deaths in the desert; and

An end to the ICE raids, to protect children and keep all families together.

World Can't Wait

www.worldcantwait.net

Come to Denver when the Democrats Meet: Protest August 23-28

World Can't Wait will support many of those actions, and in addition, is planning events related to Bringing the Bush Program to a HALT.

Only you -not your government- can bring any of this to a halt. The only realistic course is for the people of the U.S. to taking meaningful and independent political action to resist the machinery of war and the fascist direction that has emerged. Come to Denver for a week of protest that includes marching to stand with immigrants under assault and counter-protests to the week of anti-abortion actions of the Christian right. Join in contingents, film showings, street protests, strategy sessions, and more.

World Can't Wait will have booths:

- Festival of Democracy Aug 24-28, where Recreate 68 will be based in Civic Center Park August 24-26 and Skyline Park August 27-28
- Cuernavaca Park where the Alliance for Real Democracy, Tent State University, and Amnesty International's Guantanamo Cell are located August 24-28

Works of Art in Denver During the DNC:

Visual Art:

"Dialog: Denver" Colorado artists created politically themed works in the format of a 21 by 31 inch yard sign. Article featured one called "I Am Your Worst Nightmare." Aug. 16-Sept. 20, Robischon Gallery, 1740 Wazee St.

"Grey/re(a)d: In Response" and installation "dealing with finding hope amid the gloom of so much contemporary news." It poses "essential questions like: What is news? What is the truth? What is a lie? And getting people to think about it." Thru. Sept. 5, PlatteForum, 1610 Little Raven.

"Inside.Outside.North & South" - Collaborative Internet project with teens from Denver, La Paz, Bolivia and Puebla Mexico "examining the growing diversity of an ever more globalized world." Artworks created "address stereotypes, prejudice and discrimination." Aug. 21-Sept. 14, Museo de las Americas, 861 Santa Fe Drive.

"Pictures of You, Images of Iran" - inside a 90-foot long tentlike structure based on Persian architecture, installation that "gives Americans a look at everyday iranians" along with "ambient sounds from Iran and excerpts from interviews with a few of its citizens." Aug. 25-26, temporary installation, Civic Center Park.

Theater:

"The Eyes of Babylon" by an honorably discharged marine about how he used the military ban on gays to get out of the war in Iraq that he saw as morally corrupt. Aug 21-Sept 13, Theatre Group at the New Denver Civic Theater, 721 Santa Fe Drive.

"The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui", Brecht play described as "a chilling parable about corruption and power, in which Hitler is reinvented as a '30's Chicago gangster." Aug. 26, The Bindery Space, 720 22nd Street.

"Red State" by San Francisco Mime Troup, "to skewer the electoral process in song and dance." Aug. 27 at 6 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. The Bindery Space, 720 22nd Street.

"Iraq War, The Musical!" "musical-comedy satire about the obstacles the Bush administration overcame to get its war in Iraq going -- and keep it going." Through Aug. 31, Bug Theatre 3654 Navajo St.

"Allied Witches' Presidential Election Convention 2008," described as "theatrical witches poke their broomsticks in the satirical belly of our democratic process" with characters including Eleanor Roosevelt, Dick Cheney and Michelle Obama. Aug. 22, 23, and 29, Mercury Cafe, 2199 California St.

UNCONVENTIONAL ACTION

<http://dncdisruption08.org/>

DAY 1: SUNDAY AUGUST 24

Reclaim the Streets!!!!

-Urban Reclamation Front of Unconventional Denver

Kick off a week of resistance to the corrupt two-party system and capitalism with a rowdy street party that will reclaim public space from the police state occupation of Denver!

Sunday the 24th is the day before the convention begins and a day in which delegates from across the country will be checking into their hotels and attending a pre-convention party in the evening. It has also been chosen by the network of groups mobilizing against the DNC as the day to demonstrate against war and occupation. Groups of all kinds will be out in force during Sunday starting with a morning anti-war march organized by Recreate 68 from the Civic Center down to the Pepsi Center. This will be followed by the Alliance for Real Democracy's low-risk Funk the War celebration which will fill downtown with music and crowds dancing and speaking out against the war.

As you take to the streets in these morning and midday events, Unconventional Denver will be distributing information detailing when and where this anticapitalist party will manifest.

Plan on attending the low risk Funk the War celebration after the march with the understanding that when the signal is given we will emerge onto the streets of downtown in an explosion of color and noise. The goals for this action will be to transform public streets around the 16th street pedestrian mall and nearby delegate hotels into a scene of celebratory resistance that expands the scope of demonstrations off sidewalks and into a mobile force in the streets that cannot be missed.

This will be Unconventional Denver's first action in what will be a long week. So we will be balancing our goals of taking concrete action against the police occupation of Denver by reclaiming public space with the necessity of keeping this street party out of the hands of the law.

Bring instruments, noise makers, boom boxes, and bicycle sound systems in order to fill the streets with the sound of our resistance and don't forget to dress to impress! We will be experimenting with creative tactics for temporarily holding streets and intersections as we carve out space for our party so bring ideas, tools, and materials that can help make this action a success. Plan on attending the Saturday evening consulta to find out ways your affinity group can plug into making this action a success.

We will also use this moment to distribute propaganda and information about the following days of action and to set the tone for the week. There will be no business as usual in Denver during the DNC!

DAY 2: MONDAY AUGUST 25

No Business As Usual!
monday evening:

come one come all: demand No Business As Usual when the Democrats get together for their capitalist fundraising orgy. While they're giving windbag speeches and doing really bad karaoke and charging a thousand dollars a plate to fill their election coffers - anarchists, agitators, and other assorted clowns will be on-hand to disrupt the flow of capital and corporate cronyism that funds this sham democracy.

come one come all: interested parties will gather at 6pm at civic center park. Keep on the lookout for spritely elves in orange bandanas who will be giving out top-secret information on a couple of the choicest fundraisers and parties in Denver. Most of these parties will be starting after 9 or 10, so that gives folks and affinity groups a chance to chill for a few hours, finalize their plans, dress for success, mingle with the crowd. Or folks can play some of the fun direct action games we'll have set up from 6-8 that night, to get some last-minute training before going into action. When they least expect it, at the appointed time monday night, we'll emerge from the shadows to reconvene in downtown and get down and dirty. What surprises and successes will the night hold? That depends on you and what you bring to it. What kind of action is your affinity group interested in?

Do you like to share pies with politicians? Do the delegates from your state have an especially bad odor that needs to be masked? Would capitalists benefit from the educational opportunity to read communiques that seem to descend from the skies? Have a flavor of action you're especially hungry for?

Satisfy the craving by setting up a one-time anonymous email address on a public computer, contacting unconventionaldenver@riseup.net or denverlogistics@hush.com with a bit of info on what sort of thing you might like to see happen on monday night, and there will promptly be a reply in that anonymous inbox with information on locations and times of fundraisers and parties that might just benefit from that flavor of action.

DAY 3: TUESDAY AUGUST 26

Change From Below, Not From Above!!!

We Vote NO!!

Join Unconventional Denver on Tuesday, August 26th as we take our message of liberation into the streets and to the Pepsi Center. Being that the convention is just a puppet show we seek to actively disrupt the convention's media coverage through festive celebration of our success of surviving outside an oppressive system and the new world we are building.

This action is formed into two different parts- the snake marches and the blockades. Two snake marches will leave from two locations north and south of the Pepsi Center, making their way through downtown in a raucous, festive manner (bring your noise makers!) to delegate entrances at the Pepsi Center. Should one or both of the marches not reach the security perimeter, the marches will fall back to secondary goals.

Join the Action!

Affinity Groups are already in the process of finalizing their plans for this action, but Unconventional Denver is calling out to other uncommitted affinity groups to come to the DNC to ensure these plans come off successfully. With our goal of blockading delegates and holding space, we need affinity groups to decide what roles they can fill to meet this goal. Start planning with your affinity group now about what you are able to do.

Send out public pronouncements from anonymous email addresses pledging your affinity group's support and announce your commitment. With your help we can do this!

What Does Success Look Like?

With this action, there are many different levels of success. First and foremost, the complete abolition of the state (Unconventional Denver will foot the bill on the after-party) is our goal. Barring that, we are seeking to disrupt the convention. There are other means of success from this action. Redecoration or change to the entire fence also brings attention and helps to subvert this ridiculous spectacle. Actions that demonstrate alternatives to war, capitalism, borders and oppression can demonstrate our movement within this framework. Being that the convention is just a puppet show we seek to actively disrupt the convention's media coverage through festive celebration of our success of surviving outside an oppressive system and the new world we are building.

What Will The Action Look Like?

Our hope is that people come prepared not just for confrontation with the state but for a colorful, festive, celebration of our struggle for collective liberation. This hope is not specific just to the Tuesday actions but for the entire week- we aren't just protesting the Democrats and an oppressive system but striving to show what a new world could look like. We are equal parts love and rage, mixed together in a potent cocktail that provides us the strength to struggle today and the courage to continue tomorrow. Come prepared not just for five days of intense action but for five days of inspiring (to ourselves and others) belief in action.

DAY 4: WEDNESDAY AUGUST 27

No Warming! A day of actions and alternatives

The Democrats are calling the DNC this summer the ‘Greenest’ convention ever, with talk of their carbon offsets, composting and organic food. However, their environmental policies show their real desire for business as usual; delay, procrastination (2050, really?), and ‘green’ capitalism. These ‘solutions’ will only further the environmental destruction from which the world is already suffering. On August 27th, we will meet the Democrats in the streets and show the world the real solutions to the global climate and environmental crisis.

Join us for a day of actions and alternatives in the streets of Denver. Unconventional Denver is calling for both decentralized and coordinated direct actions shutting down the sources of global warming and the corporations profiting from environmental destruction and funding the Democratic party.

What this will look like: Although this is a call for an autonomous day of action, Unconventional Denver still has a few tricks up its sleeve. In conjunction with other groups around the country, we are calling for a few targeted actions throughout the day.

9:00 AM: Its time to do more than plant trees!

One of the democrat’s efforts to greenwash the convention is their “service day”. One of the things they will be doing is planting trees in a local park. We will “greet” the delegates and let them know that they need to be doing more than planting trees. We will meet at 9:00am at civic center park and march to the tree planting site. Get up early and hassle some greenwashers.

1:00 PM: Anti Green capitalist “reeducation” walk Enough of green capitalism! Enough of polluters profiting from environmental destruction while hiding behind a mask of false sustainability! A march to show them what we think of them! We will “visit” some of Denver’s most notorious polluters and purveyors of green capitalism (as well as DNC supporters) and use creative and direct action to stop their plundering of our natural resources and destruction of the environment. We will also work to ‘reeducate’ the public that they can’t buy their way to sustainability. Meet at civic center park at 2:00 sharp to kick off our “walking tour” (hint: look for the green and black flags). Come ready for fun and direct action.

6:00 PM: NO WAR NO WARMING! CRITICAL MASS BIKE RIDE!!!

Enough of oil wars! Enough of burning fossil fuels to get around! We have bikes! This critical mass bike ride will take to the streets and highlight sustainable transportation, not as an alternative, but as freedom from oil! Bring your bikes and mobile noise makers! Meet at 5:30 in civic center park and ride at 6:00!

Additionally, the calls for autonomous action could manifest itself into many forms, from shutting down local major pollution sources, fossil fuel based transportation systems, and corporate offices, to disrupting DNC green events and street theater exposing false solutions. To provide real solutions, Unconventional Denver is also calling for people to demonstrate real solutions to the global climate crisis. This could be anything from guerrilla gardening and bike blocs, to simplicity enforcement and consumer deprogramming, or other creative actions folks can think up to show the world truly sustainable ways to live.

This day of action comes on the heels of increased awareness among the masses of ‘global warming’ as a serious threat to the planet. we can’t let the politicians in power pull the green wool over the eyes of the people, pedaling false solutions that only work to line the pockets of the powerful. We must agitate for real solutions before people buy into crap like ‘future emission cuts’ and ‘green coal’ which will sink us deeper into this ecological crisis. It is up to radical environmentalists to demand solutions beyond capitalism and fossil fuels. We must grab this opportunity to reach the world and throw the democrats’ lies back in their faces.

Come ready for action. Come ready for fun. You can find out more about the DNC protests and this day of action at www.dncdisruption08.org, or by emailing unconventionaldenver@riseup.net. Unconventional Denver is committed to helping affinity groups wanting to do actions with logistical support on the ground here in Denver. Drop us a line if you are planning on coming and let us know if you need any help. Feel free to email us if you have questions. Talk this over with your affinity groups and friends, and make your plans to come out. See you in the streets!

DAY 5: THURSDAY AUGUST 28

March Against Borders: No One is Illegal

On the final day of the convention we will be joining the national mobilization for immigrant rights that will be showing its force during the DNC. Unconventional Denver will be making a strong showing of solidarity with targeted immigrant communities by taking to the streets in the 10:30am march. We will be drawing connections between the struggle for immigrant rights and the struggle against global capitalism as well as the struggle to dismantle borders and walls of all kinds. This will be a low-risk action safe for all people regardless of immigration status so play nice.
